Declaration

- All the information provided on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge.
- If I am selected to become an RICF Volunteer, I agree to abide by the guidelines and recommendations set out in the volunteer section of the RICF website. I will respect the authority of representatives of RICF and of staff, and will follow the RICF internal regulations.
- I understand that RICF is governed by Christian principles. I am sympathetic to the Christian faith and committed to ensuring that a Christian ethos is maintained at RICF.
- I have read the Child protection policy on the website and agree to follow it.
- I have never abused a child or committed a violent crime against any person and I have no criminal convictions which I feel would make me unsuitable for work with children. I will provide an up-to-date police check to assist processing of my application, and understand that the RICF Board is responsible for determining whether any criminal convictions which I have make me unsuitable for working at Acasa.
- I will ensure that I am adequately immunised according to the recommendations of my doctor before travelling to Romania.
- I will purchase medical insurance to cover my time working as a volunteer in Romania, which will include cover for emergency repatriation.
- I understand that this voluntary work may involve risks to myself and / or my belongings and will take all reasonable precautions to ensure my own personal health and safety and to look after my belongings during my time working as a volunteer.
- I understand that any independent travel that I may undertake during my time in Romania is my own responsibility, and is entirely at my own risk.
- I understand that I will be responsible for paying for my own expenses incurred in working as a volunteer with RICF, including flights, visas, accommodation, food and transport.
